

ActiveGames4Change

Sport and physical activity learning environment for citizenship, emotional, social and e-competencies training.

Working with young people in conflict with the law

Developing young people's social-emotional competencies through physical activity and active games to support inclusion, education and employability pathways.

www.activegames4change.org